The package is for two couples (or a group of four friends if you're flying solo) and includes a complete takeover of the hotel's Penthouse Level with accommodations in the Lexington and Avenue penthouses for two nights. On New Year's Eve, a two-hour private cocktail party will be held on the penthouses' connecting terraces and will include a fully-stocked top shelf open bar, a personal bartender, gourmet hor d'oeuvres and entertainment from a professional string trio. Later in the evening the hotel will provide luxury SUV transportation to the guests' restaurant or party of choice.

On New Year's Day, partygoers will be treated to a VIP brunch in the hotel's Lexington Brass restaurant with unlimited Bloody Marys and Mimosas. To wind down from a long night of partying, the package also includes four, in-suite massages and a complimentary bottle of premium Dom Pérignon Champagne, keepsake Tiffany champagne flutes and Jacques Torres Champagne Truffles. After the two-day event, the hotel's Bentley sedan will transport guests to one of NYC's airports or train stations so the stay is first-class from beginning to end.
