HOTEL 48LEX NEW YORK PENTHOUSE SUITE

ALIZ HOTEL TIMES SQUARE LOBBY

dessert feast is suspended overhead by balloons, and the “Rainbow Tunnel,” a tribute to NYC’s gay pride history. Don’t miss the sprinkle pool! Masks are currently required.

complimentary tea in the afternoon and a complimentary win reception in the evenings.

The stunning Hotel 48LEX New York (517 Lexington Ave., 212.888.3500) provides sleek, modern accommodations at a location that’s just a stone’s throw from Grand Central Station. The stylish salons and suites bring sophisticated touches, gourmet offerings (the butler pantries have Dean & DeLuca goodies) and smart amenities (Malin+Goetz toiletries). Select rooms also provide Nespresso coffee makers, and all hotel guests have access to the digital newsstand, PressReader. If you’re hungry, on-site Lexington Brass provides farm-to-table cuisine (and hotel guests can access the restaurant’s $30 set menu), while The Lounge serves up breakfast and offers Historical and modern often don’t go hand in hand, but The Evelyn (7 E. 27th St., 212.545.8000) somehow makes it work. Luxurious linens, stylish lighting and a tech-savvy multimedia hub make the guest rooms perfect for work and rest. The Evelyn also boasts several dining/drinking options in-house, including a bakery (perfect for those morning pastry runs) and a lobby bar. Are you bringing your furry friend with you to the big city? The Evelyn is also pet-friendly and extremely close to city parks for your four-legged pal to stretch their legs.

Boutique hotel Aliz Hotel Times Square (310 W. 40th St., 646.609.5122) is located near Penn Station and Hudson Yards, so the location already provides a fantastic incentive to book a room. The boutique property offers a peaceful retreat from the hustle and bustle of the city streets with elevated amenities and accommodations. If you’re looking to enjoy a New York City sunset, you won’t have to venture far. The in-house bar Dear Irving on Hudson provides cocktails and stunning views from the 40th and 41st floors of the hotel. Farm to Burger on the ground floor serves up delicious cuisine made with local, organic ingredients. The hotel is also less than two blocks from Times Square and only steps away from numerous dining options.
